

Concordia Lutheran High School Religion Class iPad Policy

The Apple iPad can be a positive addition to class and a great learning tool when utilized properly in the classroom. However, the iPad demands academic maturity on the part of the student. During class time, inappropriate use of the iPad is a distraction to learning and will not be tolerated.

iPad usage guidelines:

- a. You will use your iPad everyday in this class.
- b. You are expected to only access the apps, websites and documents that the teacher requests or gives you for the class.
- c. You may only access FaceBook, Twitter, Pinterest, any other social website, gaming sites and any music or video websites when the teacher gives you permission to do so.
- d. You are expected to not Instant Message or FaceTime from your iPad at any time during this class.
- e. You will need to have ear buds or ear phones each day for this class.
- f. You are put on your honor to abide by these iPad expectations.
- g. Your iPad will be taken away from you if the above expectations are violated.
 - 1) First offense—a warning.
 - 2) Second offense—iPad taken away for the rest of the period and event reported to the Assistant Principal.
 - 3) Third offense—iPad taken away, parent called and no iPad until meeting with the parent, teacher and Assistant Principal.
 - 4) Fourth offense—iPad taken away and student taken to the Assistant Principal's office.

Although Concordia is a distinctly Lutheran high school and Christian behavior is the norm, theft/damage of the iPad is a potential. Therefore, the following precautions should be taken:

- Never leave your iPad unattended.
- Never leave your iPad in a “set” locker.
- Label your iPad with your name for easy return if it becomes misplaced.

Great care should also be given to your iPad in order to avoid any needless damage.

- Consider a case or cover for your iPad.
- Don't place it in the bottom of your book bag where the screen could be damaged.
- Avoid excessive heat/cold, especially in a car.
- Avoid contact with food and drink.
